Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Moderate levels of air pollution are expected in eastern and northern England, eastern areas of Northern Ireland and parts of Scotland, due to settled weather and winds from Europe. High levels of air pollution are possible in urban areas in north east England. Low levels of air pollution are expected elsewhere in the UK.

Tomorrow: Moderate levels of air pollution are expected mainly for eastern England and Scotland, with High, potentially Very High levels of air pollution in the East Midlands and East Anglia.

Outlook: Moderate levels of air pollution expected widely across the UK over the next few days, with eastern and northern England most at risk of reaching High, potentially Very High levels.
